Hi Megan:

I know you're on a tight timeline, so I wanted to get you comments back ASAP from the ORD (me) and OW (Michelle Guck) analysts, as ORD and OW are viewed as Co-Leads on this topic.

I'll send you any additional comments from the other Media Analysts by COB today, but I wanted you to see these earlier as they may be more work intensive.

Thanks so much for your help on this!

Brad,

Please let OMB know that we have a presentation that will be posted to the meeting invitation. Hard copies will also be available in the room the day of the meeting.

Regarding the presentation, we would like OCFO to review before I post. The presentation is attached here. Please let me know if OCFO has any comments. I hope to post the presentation tomorrow.

Since some OMB folks will be participating remotely, I will add an Adobe Connect link to the meeting invitation as well.

Best,
Megan

Hi Megan:

As far as we know, most of the OMB folks will be attending, though a couple of OMB were planning to use the dial-in number last we spoke. I will check in with them now.

Also, does ORD have a presentation or materials to share with OMB prior to the meeting? (OMB just wrote me about that.)

Thanks!

Good afternoon Brad,

Are we expecting OMB to join us here in the Ronald Reagan Building for the March 1 PFAS briefing? Since the meeting is 2 hours, Jennifer has requested that this be a face-to-face meeting.

If they are not able to join us in person, we will add an AdobeConnect link to the invitation.

Best,
Megan

Hi Megan and Nathan:

OMB is open all day through 4pm on March 1, so they are open with any two-hour timeslot as long as it ends before 4pm.

Also, they are fine with Jennifer cancelling the 15th and sending out something for March 1st.

Thanks!
